2027 Australasian Simulation Congress

Call for Abstracts Guidelines

Submit Abstract

Submit your abstract through the ASC27 Abstract Submission Portal before 11.59 PM AEDT, 21 February 2027.

Please note, ASC27 is using a new submission platform, and first-time users will be prompted to create an account.

Theme

Beyond Reality: Simulation and AI Co-Creating the Future

The 2027 Australasian Simulation Congress (ASC27) will explore how simulation and artificial intelligence are shaping the future through innovation, collaboration and emerging technologies.

Topics

Abstracts are invited across a broad range of simulation-related disciplines, including:

- Artificial Intelligence
- Machine Learning
- Modelling and decision support systems
- Educational development (curriculum and techniques)
- Professional practice
- Human dimensions
- Creative and cultural applications
- Serious Games concepts
- Technology innovation
- Domain Adaptation

ASC27 welcomes submissions from all sectors and disciplines. In particular, we encourage contributions from Defence, Healthcare, Serious Games, Professional Development, Human Dimensions, Education & Training, Modelling & Simulation, Technologies (VR/AR/AI), Women in Simulation, and related fields.

Please read this information carefully before proceeding to the online submission form.

Presentation Formats

Authors need to submit abstracts as part of the process for acceptance to one of the following presentation formats:

Oral Presentation

- 15-minute presentation plus 5-minute question and answer session
- Scheduled between Tuesday 17 August and Thursday 19 August 2027

Poster Presentation

- Physical poster displayed throughout the Congress
- Presenters may be asked to stand by their poster and present to one or more judges between 17-19 August 2027

Workshop

- 3.5-hour interactive teaching session
- Scheduled on Monday 16 August 2027 (Pre-Conference Workshop Day)

Contribution to Published Proceedings

Authors submitting an oral presentation may choose whether to submit a paper to the published conference proceedings. At ASC27 we are offering the following publication pathways at the time of abstract submission:

- Full Paper
- Short Paper.

Authors who elect to submit a Full or Short Paper will receive further information regarding manuscript requirements, review processes, and publication arrangements following acceptance of their abstract.

Authors who do not wish to submit a paper will not be included in the published proceedings.

Poster presentations and workshops will not be included in the published proceedings.

Submission Guidelines

Please ensure all submissions comply with the following requirements:

Abstracts

- All submitted abstracts will be peer-reviewed by a panel. Accepted abstracts will be allocated in the relevant session/s.
- All presentation formats require a written title and abstract to be submitted
- Titles must be no more than 15 words.
- Abstracts must be no more than 250 words (including sub-headings, excluding title and author details) and include explanation of the presentation content.
- All abstracts must be print ready and submitted via the ASC27 EventsAir portal (note this is a new platform). Submissions sent via email or other methods will not be accepted.

- Abstract submissions will open on 2 November 2026 and close 11.59 PM AEDT, 21 February 2027. Please note, late submissions will not be accepted.
- The presenting author must register and pay to attend the conference by 11.59 PM AEST, 21 May 2027 (Early Bird registration deadline).

Authorship

- The submitting author will receive all correspondence relating to the submission and is responsible for communicating information to co-authors.
- The submitting author should indicate whether they consent to their abstract and presentation slides being shared with delegates following the Congress.
- A presenting author must be nominated at the time of submission, who can be different to the submitting author. The presenting author will be listed in the program and associated Congress materials.

Nominating presentation format

- The submitting author must nominate the preferred presentation format during submission. For oral presentations, the submitting author must also indicate whether they wish to submit a Full Paper, Short Paper, or Presentation Only.
- Presentation format preferences will be considered but cannot be guaranteed.

Oral presentations

- Oral presentations are ordinarily delivered by a single presenter. Requests for multiple presenters should be directed to the Conference Organisers at jieun@evenandmark.com.au.
- PowerPoint slides are required for presentations.

Poster presentations

- Poster presentations are ordinarily delivered by a single presenter. Requests for multiple presenters should be directed to the Conference Organisers at jieun@evenandmark.com.au.
- Posters should be printed before arrival at congress in size A0. The poster needs to contain the title of the submission, and all authors names. Poster presenters are responsible for ensuring their posters are printed and displayed at the Conference.

Workshops

- Workshop submissions must include:
  - Workshop overview
  - Learning outcomes
  - Proposed facilitator(s)
  - Intended audience.
- Standard audio-visual equipment, including a lectern, lectern microphone, projector and screen, will be provided. Presentation materials must be preloaded with the onsite technician before the scheduled presentation time. Presenters should prepare their presentation on this basis.

Conditions of Acceptance

If accepted into the official Congress program, the following conditions apply:

- The presenting author(s) must be listed as authors on the submission and must register for the Congress and pay the applicable registration fee by the Early Bird registration deadline of 11.59PM AEST, 21 May 2027.
- Presenting author(s) who have not registered by this date may have their presentation withdrawn from the program.
- Authorship is not transferable to another individual without prior approval from the Scientific Committee. Please contact the Conference Organisers at jieun@evenandmark.com.au if you need to transfer authorship.
- Authors are responsible for ensuring all submitted content is original and that any necessary permissions have been obtained.
- Any actual or perceived conflicts of interest must be disclosed.
